Living or dead, an Elk is never forgotten, never forsaken. Morning and noon may pass him by, the light of day sink heedlessly in the west, but ere the shadows of midnight shall fall, the chimes of memory will be pealing forth the friendly message,

EXALTED RULER'S MESSAGE

The weather has been fooling us into thinking that summer was going to last forever, but the changing colors in the trees is reminding us that fall is upon us.

We have had some changes at the Elks as well. Our Elkliner has a new editor. Lynn Aspinwall has graciously offered to step up and is taking over the responsibilities of the newsletter. Thank you, Lynn.

We also want to give a shout out and a huge thank you to Sherie Sasso. Sherie has been doing the Elkliner for several years in addition to her other secretarial duties. We are grateful to Sherie for her hard work and dedication.

Fall also means football. Please come down to the lodge on SUNDAY, October 16th to watch the Packers. The bar will be open and an old-fashion pot-luck. If you have any questions, please ask Mike, the restaurant manager. Come on down and enjoy good food and to cheer the green and gold on to victory.

For those, who have not heard, PER Steve Sasso, fell and badly injured his leg. Steve has had surgery and will be convalescing for a long time. As soon as Steve is settled and ready for visitors we will send out an e-mail blast with his information. We all wish Steve a complete and speedy recovery.

Enjoy the beautiful of the fall and I will see you at the Lodge.

In Elkdom,

Richard

Elks Music Bingo

Music Bingo is coming back to the Elks on Wednesday, October 19th at 6pm!

We sell bingo-type cards with song titles on them for $3 each per game. The DJ plays snippets of songs, and if it's on your card, you X it out. Don't worry if you're not good at remembering song titles — the DJ announces the name of the song when it's played. When someone fills a line (like in bingo), he or she receives a portion of the money collected for that game (reserving some to pay the DJ). It's a lot of fun as people sing along, reminisce about what they were doing when that song was popular, and enjoy each other's stories. We play eight games, so it's easy on the wallet, too. Come and check it out!
