November 5

Living or dead, an Elk is never forgotten, never forsaken. Morning and noon may pass him by, the light of day sink heedlessly in the west, but ere the shadows of midnight shall fall, the chimes of memory will be pealing forth the friendly message,

EXALTED RULER'S MESSAGE

November, the cold months are upon us! It's also the time of the year when the Lodge sees a tremendous downswing in spending by our members and their guests as many of our members head for warmer weather. We have had a very successful first six months of our Lodge year, but a lot of that will be eaten away by the next five months due to heating bills, maintaining a minimum staff to keep the Lodge open, and cost of goods.

So think of us on a cold winter night when you don't want to cook, and bring friends in for a nice meal at your Lodge! Wednesdays and Saturdays are our slowest nights – no waiting for a table! Remember that it helps us with staffing costs if you make reservations ahead of time.

I appreciate all the participation and good work of everyone in the Lodge to bring us where we are today.

We have had a lot of fresh faces in the Lodge (61 new members initiated between May and now!) and our new members seem to be enjoying their new privileges. Please introduce yourselves and welcome them to our fraternal organization.

We will be looking for volunteers to rewrite our bylaws in 2015, so think about joining that group. And, of course, we are always looking for committee members and people interested in officer positions.

Stay warm!

Steve
