Living or dead, an Elk is never forgotten, never forsaken. Morning and noon may pass him by, the light of day sink heedlessly in the west, but ere the shadows of midnight shall fall, the chimes of memory will be pealing forth the friendly message,

Please call the Elks Office (255-1644) when one of our members enters the hospital, nursing home, or is at home recuperating from an illness. We will send a card and let others know to pray for them.

ATTENTION MEMBERS!

If you receive the Elkliner by mail and you have an email address, PLEASE let us send it by email. It costs $500-$600 per month to print and mail the Elkliner. Every cent we can deduct from that amount by emailing an Elkliner can go toward a worthwhile charitable endeavor. The Elkliner is sent as a PDF document, so it's easy to open, read on line, or print. And, you have it right on your computer if you misplace your hard copy!

THANK YOU!!!

EXALTED RULER'S MESSAGE

Happy New Year! As we celebrate the beginning of a new year, we pause to remember the past. Our Lodge has many things to be proud of. We are making new friends as our membership grows and we have had many opportunities to celebrate friendships that have been established long ago.

This past year we had fundraisers for local charities. The Ladies Auxiliary had another drive for DAIS. We had two "Cocktails for a Cause" events with the proceeds going to DAIS and Heartland Farm Sanctuary. Our last fundraiser was for the Badger Honor Flight. They requested to use our Lake Front Room for a thank-you dinner for their volunteers. Members of our Lodge again stepped up and offered to pay for their meal. We received pledges of over $2,000, which more than paid for their light buffet meal. The balance will be donated to them. It is actions like this that make me very proud of our Lodge. The Badger Honor Flight asked that I share their gratitude for your generosity.

We begin a new year with a new Chef. Claudia Romae joined our staff on the 7th of December. Claudia has expressed her desire to make the Elks her new long term home and we are excited to have her on our team. We are expecting wonderful things from our kitchen. Keep watching your e-mail for extra special entrees from Chef Claudia.

We look forward to the New Year with excitement of the unknown. There will be many opportunities to share your time both in fellowship and in acts of volunteering. I hope everyone takes advantages to join their fellow Elks in both fellowship and work days.

Linda and I also want to wish you a happy and healthy New Year.

In Elkdom,

Richard
